Charitable Bequest

By deciding to leave a bequest of a specific amount of cash, a percentage of your estate, or the remainder of your estate, you can create a permanent legacy. There's no limit on the amount you may set aside from your estate. You may choose to make a gift of cash, securities, or other property—and your estate will receive a tax deduction in the amount of your charitable bequest. If you have already drafted your will, your attorney can help you arrange a charitable bequest with a simple amendment, or codicil.

Here are some examples of how you might create a charitable bequest in your will:

Help the community address its most pressing current needs by making a general bequest.

I bequeath $_____ (or _____% of my residuary estate) to the United Jewish Fund and Council of St. Paul, Minnesota.

Provide income for the Jewish community each year in perpetuity by making a general bequest to establish an endowment fund.

I bequeath $_____ (or _____% of my residuary estate) to the United Jewish Fund and Council of St. Paul, Minnesota, to establish an endowment fund to be used for the general purposes of the United Jewish Fund and Council.

Provide a gift to a specific agency or area of interest to you with a specific area or interest bequest.

I bequeath $_____ (or _____% of my residuary estate) to the United Jewish Fund and Council of St. Paul, Minnesota, to support _____ (specify agency or program)

Support a specific agency or cause of interest to you every year, in perpetuity, with a designated bequest to establish an endowment fund.

I bequeath $_____ (or _____% of my residuary estate) to the United Jewish Fund and Council of St. Paul, Minnesota, to establish an endowment fund to support _____ (specify agency or program)

A gift to the Jewish community today will allow you to be there for your family, St. Paul, and the Jewish people—whenever help is needed in the future.
